

Crawford University
Faith City, Igbesa

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS & SOCIAL SCIENCES
Department of Political Science and International Relations

Rain Semester Examination 2015/2016
400 Level Military in Politics PSR 408

Answer Any Four Questions Duration: 2. 30 Hours

1. Post-colonial juntas that took over power in African countries were motivated by the desire to engineer sound socio-economic development; why have they failed in this respect? 15 Mks
2. In this era of democracy, the military have been seen again to take over power in some African countries from constitutionally constituted governments, examine the reasons that could necessitate such reemergence and intrusion in a democratic polity. 15 Mks
3. Military intervention into the governance of states has inspired scholarly appraisal overtime; as a student of politics, discuss the major theories that have been postulated in explaining military incursion into politics 15 Mks
4. Discuss the characteristics of a militarized state, how can one differentiate a ruling government from a reigning regime in such a polity? 15 Mks
5. In the study of military intervention in developing countries, some dissimilarity has been observed; analyze to the best of your knowledge the types of regime that have characterized military rule in history. 15 Mks
6. What is military disengagement? Using Nigeria as a case study, discourse propensities for disengagement. 15 Mks