

CRAWFORD UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS 2020/21 SESSION RAIN SEMESTER
FULL TITLE OF EXAM: B.SC. POLITICAL SCIENCE AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
COURSE TITLE: Politics of Intergovernmental Relations COURSE CODE: PSR 414

Instruction: Answer three questions only

Time Allowed: Two Hours

1. The justification for a federal state is that it accommodates all interests. Discuss the concepts of “shared rule” and the “self-rule”.
2. The nature of heterogenous societies is characterized by “unintegrated” but accentuated by the theories of integration. Discuss these theories.
3. “Integration” is a common phenomenon in multinational countries. Discuss this term within the context of literature.
4. Discuss the challenges that have confronted intergovernmental relations in Nigeria.
5. There is hardly any federal society without the institutions responsible for intergovernmental cooperation. In line with this position, succinctly compare and contrast the mechanisms for resolving political or financial altercations between the levels of government in the United States of America and the Indian polities.